

You are both amazing. I love you so much that I would go to the sun and every other star in every universe. You are both kind to me. You are both very generous. I think you are both lovely. You are both great cooks! You both have beautiful handwriting.

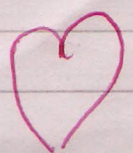

I find that you are a perfect match. You are both probably thinking that I am a bit stupid saying that, because even if I didn't think that you were not a perfect match neat handwriting. you probably wouldn't care.

Either way I am happy that you got married and sad. in the same way I think that when Mum met you and you were going to get married she changed. She was happy again. When my Mum is happy I am happy.

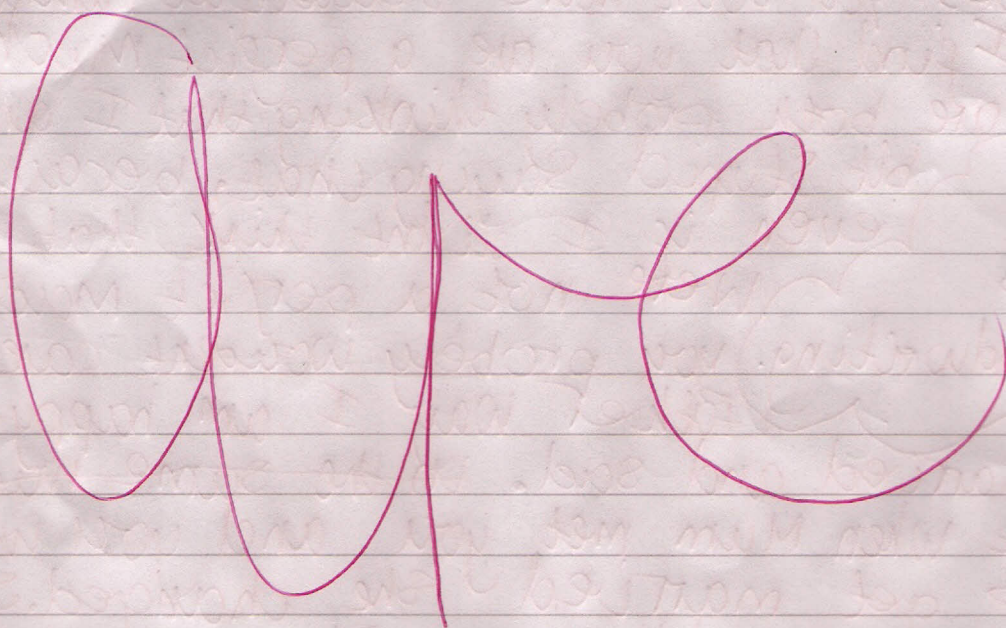

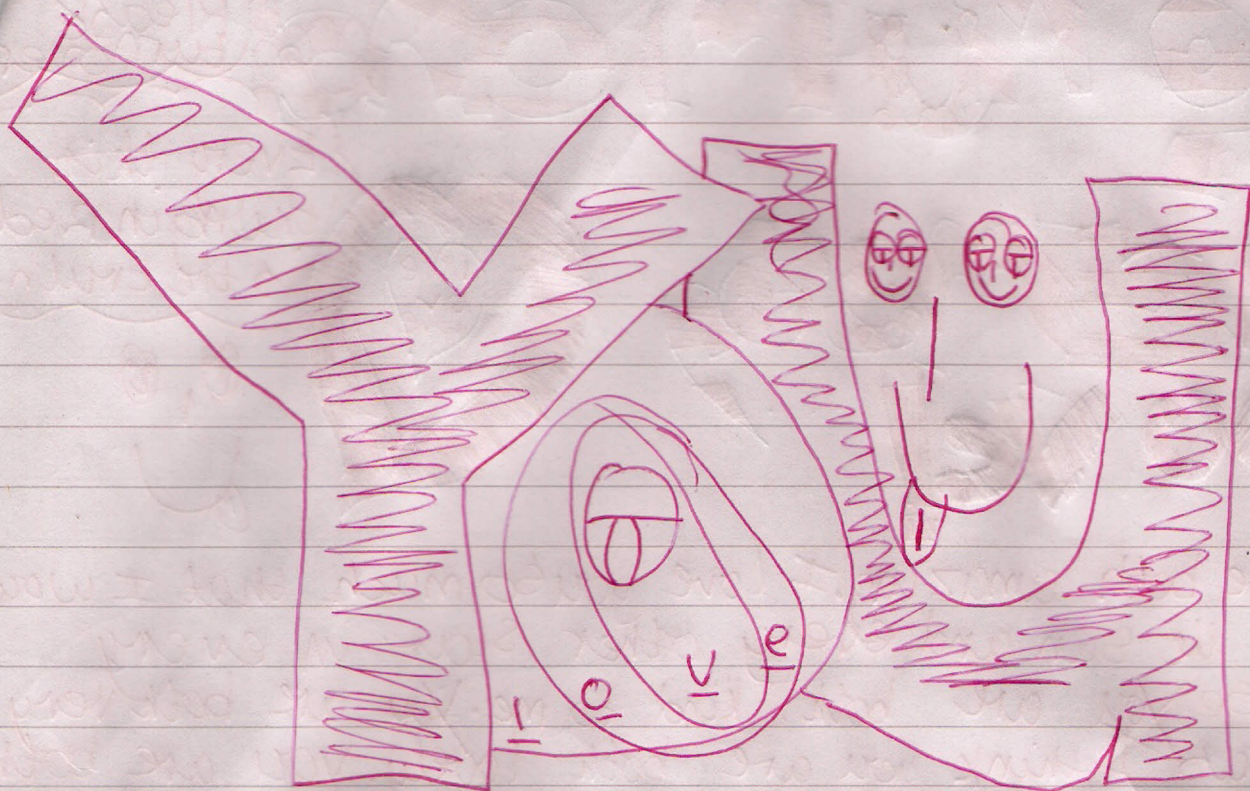

I hope you appreciate this letter because I am doing my best handwriting.

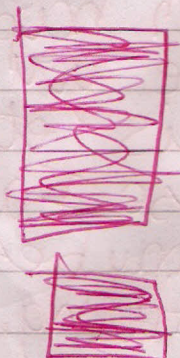

All my love from ~~xxxx~~ P.T.O (Please Turn over)

Amazing

Love you!
